India's first World Cup victory came in 1983, when the team upset the heavily favored West Indies in the final. The victory was a major upset, as India was not considered to be one of the favorites to win the tournament. However, the team played with great heart and determination, and ultimately prevailed.

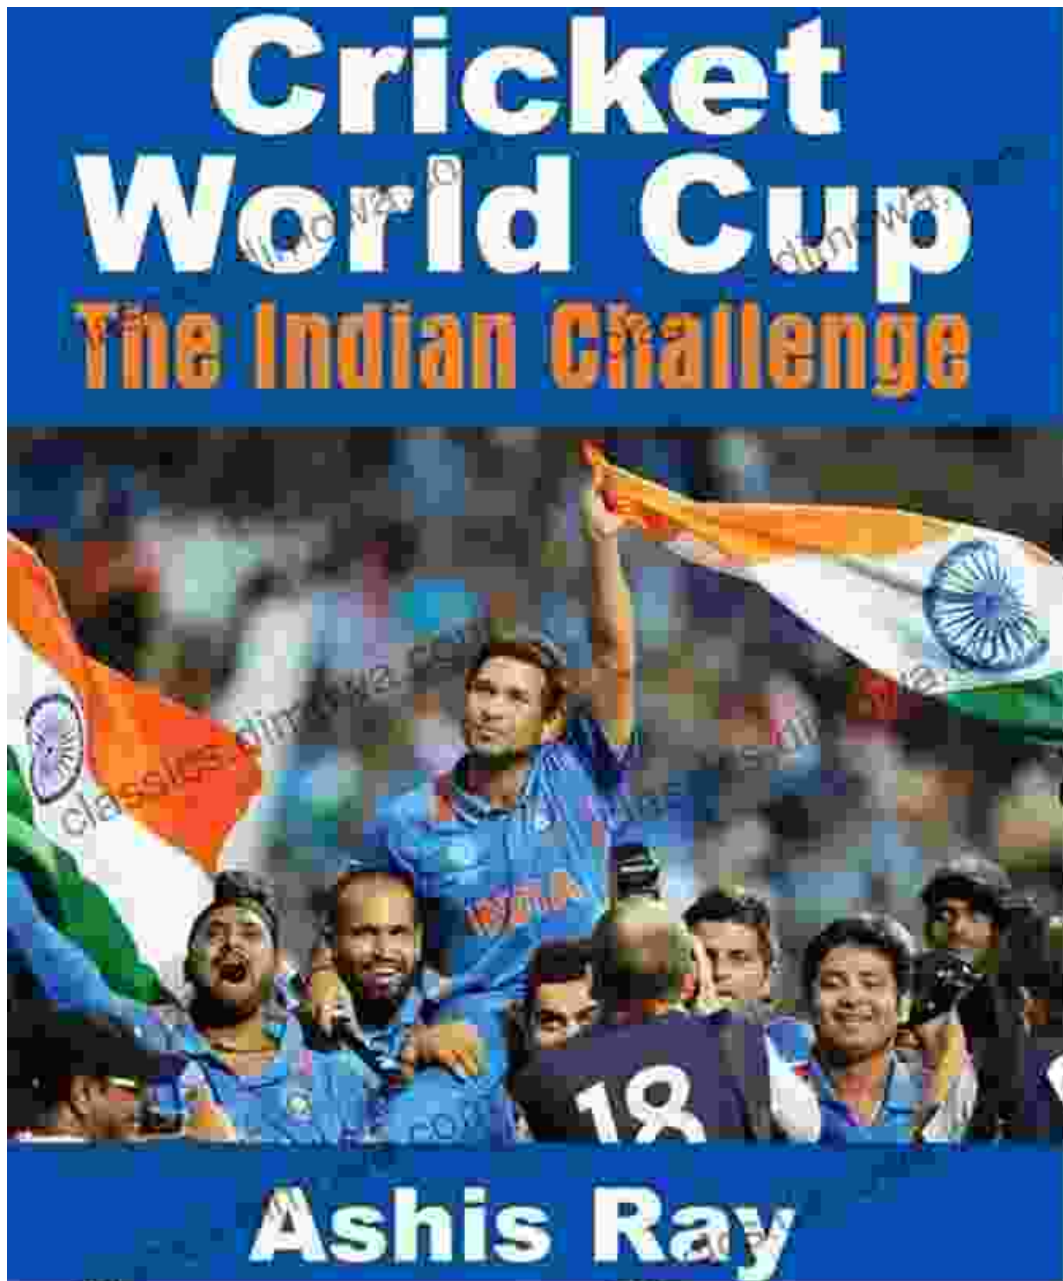

India's second World Cup victory came in 2011, when the team defeated Sri Lanka in the final. The victory was a fitting tribute to the team's captain, MS Dhoni, who had led India to victory in the 2007 ICC World Twenty20.

Dhoni is one of the most successful captains in Indian cricket history, and his leadership was a major factor in India's World Cup triumph.

In addition to its two World Cup victories, India has also finished as runner-up three times, in 1987, 2003, and 2019. The team has also reached the semi-finals on four other occasions.

India's performance in the World Cup has been a reflection of the team's overall strength. India is one of the most successful cricket teams in the world, and its players are among the best in the game. The team has a strong batting lineup, led by Virat Kohli, Rohit Sharma, and KL Rahul. The bowling attack is also strong, with Jasprit Bumrah, Mohammed Shami, and Ravichandran Ashwin leading the way.

India is one of the favorites to win the 2023 Cricket World Cup. The team has a strong squad, and it will be playing at home. If India can play to its potential, it will be a major contender for the title.
