One day, while on a business trip to the Middle East, Smith had a profound encounter with a group of Palestinian Christians. Their unwavering faith and resilience in the face of adversity deeply moved him. It was during this trip that Smith began to question his own beliefs and to seek a deeper meaning in life.

Upon returning home, Smith embarked on a spiritual quest that would ultimately lead him to the Sea of Galilee in Israel. Through his experiences, Smith discovered the power of love, compassion, and forgiveness.
