About the Book

Including Visit To Mount Horeb And Other Localities Of The Exodus is a detailed account of Edward Robinson's travels in the Sinai Peninsula and the surrounding region. The book was first published in 1841, and it has since become a classic work of biblical archaeology.

Robinson's travels were undertaken in Free Download to identify the various sites mentioned in the Bible. He visited Mount Horeb, the traditional site of the giving of the Ten Commandments; Mount Sinai, where Moses is said to have received the Law from God; and Kadesh-barnea, the starting point of the Israelites' journey to the Promised Land.

Robinson's book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history and archaeology of the Bible. It is also a fascinating account of Robinson's own travels, and it provides a glimpse into the world of biblical scholarship in the 19th century.
