It is estimated that couples spend an average of $30,000 to $50,000 on their weddings. However, it is possible to create a budget-friendly wedding without sacrificing your dream day. Here are some tips:

- Choose a less popular time of year: Wedding venues often offer discounts during the off-season.
- Consider a weekday wedding: Weekends tend to be more expensive due to higher demand.
- Negotiate with vendors: Don't be afraid to ask for discounts or package deals.

Wedding Timeline

Planning a wedding can be overwhelming, but following a timeline will help you stay organized and on track.

- 12-18 months before: Book your venue, photographer, and wedding planner.
- 9-12 months before: Send out save-the-dates and create a wedding website.
- 6-9 months before: Finalize your guest list, choose your wedding party, and Free Download your dress.

- 3-6 months before: Book your hair and makeup artist, Free Download the wedding cake, and send out formal invitations.
- 1-3 months before: Have your final dress fitting, schedule a rehearsal, and delegate tasks to your wedding party.
- Week of the wedding: Relax and enjoy the pre-wedding festivities with your family and friends.

Wedding Day Checklist

On your wedding day, it is important to have a checklist of essentials to ensure everything runs smoothly. Here are some key items:

- Marriage license: Make sure you have a valid marriage license before the ceremony.
- Wedding rings: Don't forget the most important symbol of your commitment.
- Dress and accessories: Bring your dress, veil, shoes, and any other accessories you will need.
- Makeup and hair: Pack your makeup and hair styling tools for touch-ups throughout the day.
- Emergency kit: Include items like safety pins, bandages, and stain remover.
