

Saving Our History One Photo At A Time: Cruising Ontario 170

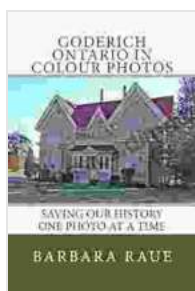

By Don Doucet

Saving Our History One Photo At A Time: Cruising Ontario 170 is a book by local historian and photographer Don Doucet. The book features over 170 photos of classic cars, trucks, and motorcycles from the 1950s, 1960s, and 1970s. Doucet spent years collecting the photos from local residents and businesses, and each one tells a unique story about the people and culture of Ontario.

The book is divided into three sections: cars, trucks, and motorcycles. Each section features a variety of photos, from classic muscle cars to vintage pickup trucks to iconic motorcycles. Doucet also includes a brief history of each vehicle, as well as information about its owner and its place in Ontario history.
