The Animas River: A Fly-Fishing Haven

Renowned for its crystal-clear waters and abundant trout population, the Animas River is a fly-fisher's paradise. Cast your line for rainbow, brown, and cutthroat trout amidst stunning canyon walls and emerald-green pools.

Lake Nighthorse: A Trophy Destination

This sprawling reservoir is home to an impressive population of rainbow trout, some reaching trophy proportions. Whether trolling, casting, or jigging, you'll have ample opportunities to hook into a monster catch.

The La Plata River: A Hidden Gem

Underrated but equally rewarding, the La Plata River offers excellent fishing for brook, brown, and rainbow trout. Explore its meandering channels and hidden pools for a secluded and serene fishing experience.

Unforgettable Floating Journeys

Beyond fishing, La Plata County provides exceptional opportunities for floating the Animas River.

Mild Rafting Adventure

Enjoy a scenic float trip through Animas Canyon, where you can admire towering cliffs, lush vegetation, and abundant wildlife. This section of the river is perfect for families and those new to rafting.

Intermediate Whitewater Excitement

Embark on a more exhilarating adventure on the class III-IV waters of the Animas River below Durango. Navigate through rapids such as "Lobos Drop" and "Smelter Rapid" while soaking in the breathtaking surroundings.

Advanced Rafting for Thrill-Seekers

If you crave an adrenaline rush, tackle the class IV-V section of the Animas River known as "The Box." This challenging stretch offers non-stop whitewater action, with towering drops and swirling currents.

Essential Information for Success

To make your fishing and floating adventures in La Plata County a success, consider these vital tips:

Licensing and Regulations

Obtain a valid Colorado fishing license and adhere to all fishing regulations, including catch limits and tackle restrictions.

Appropriate Gear

Pack the right equipment for the type of fishing you plan to engage in. Fly rods, spinning reels, and baitcasting outfits are all suitable options.

Safety Precautions

Always wear a life jacket when floating or fishing in moving water. Be aware of potential hazards such as cold temperatures, strong currents, and changing weather conditions.

Respect the Environment

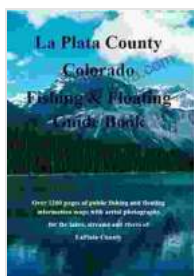

Practice catch-and-release fishing to preserve the sustainability of the fish populations. Pack out all trash and leave the environment pristine for future generations.
